No one could beat Meagan Davis and Bentley, as they won Dressage At Devon's Young Rider Team, Individual and freestyle competitions.

Kassandra Barteau placed second in all three classes riding the 10-year-old gelding Toscano. It mattered not to judges that she ditched her stock tie mid-ride. It had come loose and began to flutter, and at one point while heading down the long side toward A, Barteau quickly reached up, pulled it off her neck and flung it out of the ring.

Barteau has competed at Devon as a young rider. This was her first year in open competition, and she showed she was up to the task. Her parents, Yvonne and Kim Barteau, also competed at Devon, and Kassandra said it was like a family horse vacation. "We get to shop and have fun and hang out," she said.

► Hilltop Pride

Christopher Hickey and Heather Mason each took two fourth level wins. Mason earned her wins with the help of Warsteiner, a 7-year-old gelding sired by Riverman and out of Welona. Hickey took his wins with Pacino, a 10-year-old Oldenburg owned by Cecelia Stewart.

Pacino was bred by Hilltop Farm in Colora, Md., and Hilltop owner Jane MacElree is quite proud of the fact that he's a second-generation foal. His sire, Parabol, and his dam, Corthena, were both bred by Hilltop Farm.

"For that reason, he's very special to Hilltop, but Jane [MacElree] agreed to sell him because he was going to Cece, and she's part of the Hilltop family," Hickey said.

Pacino is a talented horse but one that must be developed slowly, Hickey said. "He can have fabulous gaits and movement, but you have to be careful with it," said Hickey. "It's like a volume dial. You can turn it way up, but that can lead to tension. So I'm working with how to regulate that."

In August, Hickey lost his successful partner Cabana Boy after he suffered an accident in the field and had to be euthanized. It made for an emotionally difficult end to the summer for the Hilltop team, but Hickey is looking forward to an exciting year of working with not only Pacino, but his other current top mount, Douglas, and with several good young Hilltop horses. He gave much credit to MacElree for the support she's given him.

"She's amazing, and she's always out there helping, carrying the grooming bag, helping to unload and load the trailer," he said. "She really loves her horses."
